Independent travel ideas / No purchase or sign-up required

REVIEWED 14 OCTOBER 2026

01 / FIND YOUR BASE

Start with the shape of your days.

01 Le Marais

Historic streets and galleries; compare the exact address and transit.

02 Saint-Germain

A Left Bank base for cafes and museum-focused days.

03 Latin Quarter

A lively walking area around university and historic sites.

04 Montmartre

Hilltop views and winding streets; account for slopes and stairs.

02 / ARRIVAL AND MOVEMENT

Charles de Gaulle and Orly have different rail routes. The official Paris Region <> Airports ticket covered the main airport rail routes at EUR 14 one way when reviewed; check the live fare and route before travel.

03 / ENTRY REMINDER

Schengen entry permission depends on nationality and recent travel history. Canadian short-stay rules are described in the live government advisory; ETIAS status may change. Check the official guidance for your passport before departure.

04 / FLEXIBLE FOUR-DAY OUTLINE

An itinerary with breathing room.

DAY 01*The historic core*MORNING

Settle in, then walk a small part of Ile de la Cite.

AFTERNOON

Choose a Seine-side route instead of a long first-day checklist.

EVENING

Enjoy a nearby meal and reset your plan.

DAY 02*Art day*MORNING

Visit one major museum after checking its own calendar.

AFTERNOON

Leave time for another neighborhood, not a rushed second museum.

EVENING

Choose a slow Left Bank evening.

DAY 03*A hill and a view*MORNING

Explore Montmartre at a comfortable walking pace.

AFTERNOON

See a different district or return to a favorite cafe.

EVENING

Check any ticketed evening activity in advance.

DAY 04*Your Paris*MORNING

Use the morning for Le Marais or a market stroll.

AFTERNOON

Keep a flexible afternoon for what you missed or loved.

EVENING

Check airport routing and departure timing.

Use this as a starting point, not a promise of openings, weather, access or availability. Confirm every reservation and route directly.

05 / A PRACTICAL FINAL CHECK

Go informed. Stay flexible.

- Check Louvre, Orsay and Eiffel Tower official calendars individually.
- Use the transit authority's current fare and airport-ticket rules.
- Keep belongings secure on airport links and busy transit.
- Confirm Schengen and travel-document requirements for your passport.
- Plan walking days around mobility needs, weather and rest.
